HOSE SCHOOL.
At Fair Grounds, near Clarksville.
Mr. W. B. Marshall proposes to train and teach a number of young men to handle the fancy and modern games. Persons who have young stock to gain would do well to have them trained and pitted for the coming Fall Fair.
He has fine stables and careful officers, and particular care will be taken of stock entrusted to him. He has superior advantages over all others, as the stock can be exercised on the track. Charges moderate. Persons who have children coming out of the season will have the chance to gain them. I keep fancy saddle horses and mares for sale.
